

CALVARY CHAPEL CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Dress Code/Uniform Policies – Grizzly Academy Students

Grizzly Academy Students are sometimes required to wear school uniforms on campus or at school activities according to the guidelines below:

- Where GA students are not required to be in school uniform, the minimum of obeying the high school dress code is expected – no exceptions.
- All required uniforms must be purchased from the Chapel Store.
- K-8th GA students are required to wear school uniforms to on-campus classes.
- GA students are not required to wear uniforms to SAT10 testing on campus.
- If a GA student (7th-12th) has only P.E. or Sports for an on-campus class, he/she may wear dress code appropriate non-uniform clothing to go directly to the locker room to change for P.E.
- Elementary GA students with only P.E. or Sports may wear a school uniform, sign in at the office and report directly to the designated meeting place for their P.E. class or sport.
- GA Students do not have to wear uniforms to try out for ACSI or CCEA events or school plays.
- GA Students do not have to wear uniforms to information/interest meetings regarding ASB, sports, music, or anything similar
- GA Students do not have to wear uniforms to play practices, ACSI or CCEA practices, or to fundraiser activities.
- GA Students who compete in ACSI or CCEA events have to wear uniforms (or dressy attire) as designated by the teacher in charge of each respective event.
- Elementary and Junior High School Chapels: If a satellite school student is invited to sit with a specific class, or chooses to sit in the mainstream of Junior High School, they must be in the appropriate school uniform. If they sit behind the on-campus students, or with their parents, or with the Grizzly Academy Class, they do NOT need to be in uniform.
- Upon the occasion of being invited to join the on-campus school for a field trip, GA students must wear uniforms (or the appropriate clothing designated by the teacher in charge).
- GA Junior High Student Reps on ASB must wear uniforms or the attire designated for specific events.
